

you, in any way, involved with the holdup and murder that occurred on the 22nd of December?

STEVE

No, I was not.

O'BRIEN

Nothing further.

CUT TO: PETROCELLI riffling through papers. She stops occasionally, looks toward STEVE, and nods. PETROCELLI leans back in her chair and visually confronts STEVE for a long beat. Then she gets up and goes to podium.

PETROCELLI

Mr. Harmon, do you know James King?

STEVE

I know him from the neighborhood.

PETROCELLI

You talk to him much?

STEVE

Once in a while.

PETROCELLI

Once in a while. When was the last time you spoke to him before the robbery?

STEVE

I don't know exactly, but it was during the school year.

PETROCELLI

Didn't you speak to him in December?

STEVE

I don't think so, but I might have.

PETROCELLI

Which is it? You don't think so or you don't remember?

STEVE

Both. I mean, I might have spoken to him, but we don't talk about anything important enough to remember.

PETROCELLI

What do you talk about?
