

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS - HIGH SCHOOL

Daily Independent Reading and Writing

General Instructions for Parents: See below for a description of English options for each day. Students will spend 45 minutes reading from their independent reading book and 15 minutes responding in writing to the daily prompt. They can use a book from school, home, the textbook, or a digital text. Students with a library card can check out digital books.

Here is a printable packet with all English activities and resources. High School English Packet

General Instructions for Students: Students should spend approximately an hour a day on English work. There are additional reading options listed at the end of this document.

1. Choose a book of interest and one that is appropriate to your grade level and reading level. If possible, connect the topic of the book to what you have been studying in class. You can find books at your homes, including from your ELA Textbook day.
2. Read your book daily for at least 45 minutes.
3. Respond daily to the prompts below. Each response should be at least half a page. Responses should be your own original thinking and should be as specific as possible.
